Call for Manuscripts

An interdisciplinary, peer reviewed publication, Journal of International Students (Print ISSN 2162-3104 & Online ISSN 2166-3750) is a professional journal that publishes narrative, theoretical and empirically-based research articles, student reflections, and book reviews relevant to international students and their cross-cultural experiences and understanding.

Published quarterly, the Journal encourages the submission of manuscripts from around the world, and from a wide range of academic fields, including comparative education, international education, student affairs, linguistics, psychology, religion, sociology, business, social work, philosophy, and culture studies. The Journal audience includes international and domestic students, faculty, administrators, and educators engaged in research and practice in international students in colleges and universities.

a) Peer-reviewed Article - includes manuscripts that focus on the interpretation, implication, or significance of research work related to international students and scholars from various disciplines (between 4,500 to 7,500 words).

b) Study Abroad/Reflection- includes descriptions and perceptions from students and scholars concerning another culture, language, people and society from an insider or outsider perspective. Reflections are the building blocks of research papers and offer original points of view on the issues and concerns related to sojourns (between 1,000 to 2,500 words).

c) Book Review - includes reviews and critiques of the written work of scholars from a number of disciplines related to international students (between 750 to 1,200 words).

Please e-mail your manuscript to the Editor, krishna.bista@gmail.com. Include your full address with email and telephone number. Follow APA 6th edition in your citation and references. Double space. Times New Roman with 12 font size.

This Journal is a non-profit publication and has been operating through the voluntary services of editors, copy editors, reviewers and guest editors. All positions in the Journal are unpaid. There is no fee for submission or publication. For further information, please visit our website <http://jistudents.org/>
